

ODD FELLOWS HALL AND B. J. DAVIS

With the decision of the judge of the court down in Atlanta, Ga., it will appear that the Ben Davis following have won another signal victory. Dispatches from Atlanta which appeared in The Globe last week brought information that the receiver appointed by the court had been discharged, and all of the property turned back to Mr. Ben Davis and his associates. It is said that there was involved more than $600,000 worth of assets, in which is to be included the magnificent Odd Fellows' Hall Building, on which there is a roof garden and the Odd Fellows' Auditorium. This building is regarded by the Atlanta people as the civic center of the great state of Georgia, and the friends of Mr. B. J. Davis are congratulating him upon the magnificent victory that he has won for the constructive forces of his organization. The discharge of the receiver by the court is regarded as having been in accord with the wishes of the masses down in the state of Georgia. The following is an exact copy of the order of the Fulton County Supreme Court.

A. D. Jones No. 35,039
vs. Fulton Superior Court
District Grand Lodge No. 18,
Grand United Order of Odd Fellows of America, Jurisdiction of Georgia, a Corporation.

The above stated case coming on for hearing on the intervention of the above named defendant corporation et al, filed in said case September 22nd, 1917, and also on the amendment of said defendant corporation et al, to said intervention filed in said case December 7th, 1917, and upon consideration thereof, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that James A. Branch, the Receiver herein, do turn over to the Board of Directors of said defendant corporation, as named in said amended intervention, all of the property and assets belonging to said defendant corporation now in his possession and under his control as such Receiver, and take a receipt therefor from B. J. Davis, the General Manager of said Corporation, and file the same herein and upon complying with this decree the said James A. Branch do stand discharged as such Receiver.

It is further ordered and decreed that this case be retained in court until the several interventions pending herein have been finally disposed of and all other questions pending herein settled.

It is further adjudged and decreed that the property and assets of said defendant corporation turned over to said board of directors by the receiver as above ordered be and the same are hereby made subject to the payment of all unpaid judgments and decrees rendered or which may be rendered in this case.

This 12th day of January, 1918.
GEORGE L. BELL,
Judge S. C. A. C.

TAKE A SLANT.
Some people, after attaining a high standing, forget that gravitation still exists.
One idea is all right, if it is a good one.
If you would know why Eve ate the apple, then why is it you heed not the "Keep-off-the-grass" sign?
Well, now, what is a fool? If the mirror is clear when you look into it, perhaps.
If lies weren't cheap, h—ll would be high.
There is one thing about a man that is really asinine—that is his nose when he blows it.
Don't worry about the High Cost of Living—just knock the L out of the H. C. L.
Some women dress as if they were rabbits.
Lose thy neighbor as thyself, and spare your coal by warming by his fires.
Wonder if Nero would like to spend a few days on earth just now?
I don't like the way some people ask your pardon after tramping underfoot your corn—they meet your frown with a glorious smile.
No, my son; not many men are valiant these days. Every one seeks his neighbor's good (coal).
Brother, there is a truth I would not have you ignorant of: Patience is the price of liberty; then, please don't get mad with your wife if she hasn't any pork chops for breakfast.
Verily, all men are brothers—but, say, war is it that the most of them want you to be the "Pie Brother" when it comes to "squaring up"?
God created all things; and nothing made He imperfect; but the freedom of choice is certainly a stumbling stone to the most of us. We choose our own way and call it God's.
Men, money and munitions are indispensable to carrying on an aggressive war campaign; but men minus the money is about as efficacious as munitions minus the guns.
Serve not a man for favors; but because you are indispensable to his success.
A happy heart never finds cause to murmur.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF DEACON GIBBS.
The grim reaper death has again visited our midst taking from us a devoted and loyal member, in the person of Brother J. S. Gibbs. In the passing of Brother Gibbs, the church has sustained a great loss. He was ever faithful to his duty in every department of the work and was an untiring worker and ever ready to help his fellow man. Being the senior deacon and one of the members on the organization of the church, he knew best the needs and cares of the church and therefore took pleasure in seeing after them.
In the passing of him the trustee board has lost a loyal and faithful member, whose seat will be empty and whose place will be hard to fill. The family a devoted husband and father.
Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty God to take from our midst this our brother and deacon.
Be it Resolved, That we the Trustees Board bow our heads in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.
Be it further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be placed on the minutes of the church, a copy sent to the bereaved family and a copy sent to the Nashville Globe.
John Rucker, Chairman.
Bro. Blake, Sec. of Trustees Bd.
Bro. Haddock.
Jaspus Demoss.
Dro. E. Davis.

earth was spent in the house of the Lord and the church that he loved and was always dear to him, be it also.
Resolved, That we the members of the auxiliaries of the church ever cherish his loving memory and that with the family we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well. In this the saddest hour of their bereavement let us all resign ourselves to His will and with Job of old say, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord."
Servant of God well done.
Rest from thy loved employ.
The battle's fought, the victory won.
Enter thy Master's joy.
A voice at midnight came.
He started up to hear,
A mortal arrow pierced his frame
He fell but felt no fear.

MR. ROLAND W. HAYES, THE CELEBRATED TENOR PAYS NASHVILLE A VISIT.
Mr. Roland W. Hayes, formerly a student in the medical department of Fisk University, but lately from the Boston Conservatory of music one having studied abroad and today one of the best known soloists before the American public, paid Nashville a visit on Saturday, January 23rd, remaining over Sunday and Monday.
Mr. Hayes was on his way to California where he goes to fill a number of very important engagements. In company with Mr. Hayes was his mother who has been making her home in Boston for the past six years. Mr. Hayes came to Nashville from Chattanooga, which is his old home. He gave a recital in Chattanooga to a crowded house. Mr. Hayes is receiving unprecedented recognition in the musical world which is the result of his ability. He has had the pleasure of singing before some of the greatest critics in the world and his engagements are now more than he is able to fill. When asked why he did not let us know when he was coming to the city, he stated that he did not decide to come by the way of Nashville until the last moment. Mr. Hayes is now completing a tour of the United States which will take in the entire golden West, working back through the middle states down through Georgia, before the middle of April or the first of May at which time he shall go to the sea shore to a little rest. His many friends in Nashville are pleased to know of his success and wish him continued success and God speed.
REV. SKELTON LEAVES CITY.
Rev. Skelton, the Evangelist, who has been in the city for a month preaching at the different churches, left the city Tuesday evening for Lexington, Ky. The meetings proved very successful with twenty-two conversions.

BRIEFS FROM BALTIMORE.
Baltimore, Md., January 25.—Thos. R. Smith, the well-known proprietor of R. Smith's Hotel, who has been ill for the past two months, is improving at his home, 2635 Druid Hill avenue. He was threatened with locomotor ataxia, and has been under the care of the best physicians in the city.
A successful two weeks' revival has just closed at Bethel A. M. E. Church resulting in 144 conversions. The services were in charge of the Rev. Dr. W. Sampson Brooks, pastor of the church, and the Rev. R. V. A. Clayton Powell of New York City. Dr. Brooks is conducting similar services at Ebenezer A. M. E. Church this week.
A number of leaders here are urging the School Board to appoint two colored men as assistant school superintendents.
The Baptist Ministers' Conference of this city met with the Baptist ministers of Washington Monday, at Metropolitan Church, the latter city. Dinner was served the visiting ministers at the conclusion of a lengthy program.
Capt. William B. Spencer, of the old First Separate Company of Maryland, now stationed at Newport News, was in the city last week visiting relatives. He is now the senior captain in the United States Army, having held the position 25 years.
The validity of the local segregation law is on the state for argument before the Court of Appeals next Tuesday, and this despite the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court nullifying segregation laws.
The patriotic services that the Negro is rendering in the present world war, the great part that he is playing therein and the necessity for including him in any program looking toward general democracy were discussed at three big mass meetings held under the auspices of the colored section of the Maryland Council of National Defense Wednesday of last week. The sessions were attended by men and women from all parts of the State.
John H. Murphy, publisher Baltimore Afro-American, former Governor Phillips Lee Goldsborough and Dr. Ernest Lyon, chairman of the section, were the principal speakers at the morning session. Hon. Emmett J. Scott, special assistant to the Secretary of War, came in during the morning. He delivered one of the principal addresses at night.
Mr. Murphy, who delivered the welcoming address at the opening session, declared that the present world war should benefit all mankind and shatter race and class distinctions. Any program for democracy, he said, must include the colored people of the United States.
Dr. Lyon outlined the various activities of the section and told of its plans for the future.
The women's auxiliary met in the afternoon, with Miss Ida R. Cummings presiding. Public Service Commissioner Towers and Mrs. Minnie L. Gaines were among the speakers.
An overflowing meeting was held at night. Governor Harrington, who hurried from the legislative session at Annapolis, unsolicited praised the work that the section has accomplished and pledged his support in every movement looking toward the advancement of the Negro.
Mr. Scott said sectional and race feeling must be obliterated to make the United States successful.
Dr. John H. Latane, of Johns Hopkins University, also spoke.
Resolutions offered by the Rev. Dr. A. L. Gaines pledged every effort to defeat the Kaiser, praised Governor Harrington for naming Dr. Lyon as chairman of the section and lauded his chairmanship.

MEHARRY NEWS.

The Hubbard Hospital Club had its annual sermon preached last Sunday by Bishop I. B. Scott. The day was exceedingly cold, but at the eleven o'clock hour a good audience gathered in the Meharry Auditorium to hear the story of "Help for Others."

The parable of the talents given to the servants gave the theme for the practical discourse. The bishop emphasized the best use be made of whatever talents we possess—whether one two or five, and as the earthly lord commended his servants who had used the talents committed to them so if we use our talents well, our Heavenly Father will so commend us. He exhorted that we despise not the day of small things nor the day of small deeds, but day by day do with our might what our hands find to do and at the final day of reckoning our faithfulness and willingness to do will make for us a beautiful life of usefulness and helpfulness to others.

Dr. W. S. Ellington to Y. M. C. A.

At 3:30 o'clock a splendid representation of the Meharry Y. M. C. A. gathered to hear Dr. W. S. Ellington on "Christ as a Worker." A message from Dr. Ellington is always enjoyed by the Meharry boys. Many of them cross the river every Sunday to hear this noted divine. Last Sunday he spoke on Christ as a worker, not for the exclusive few, but to all people. He urged the young men to follow this example of our Christ and when they select their fields for labor, go out to serve all the people. He urged them not to despise the lowly homes from which they came, but to return to these lowly homes and by their training and superior advantages carry sunshine and happiness into these homes and make them veritable palaces.

The address was helpful and inspiring. All wish the doctor to come again.

Mrs. Maggie Holman Goes to Her Reward.

Wednesday morning Mrs. Maggie Holman, wife of Dr. J. H. Holman, Prof. of Bacteriology, passed to the great beyond.

Mrs. Holman leaves three beautiful daughters, one Miss Annie Mae, a young lady and teacher at the school for the blind, and the other two are Misses. All Meharry deeply sympathize with Dr. Holman and daughters.

Military Affairs.

The work of enlisting at the school goes slowly on. Uneasiness is being felt because of the tardiness of the work, but this far no way has been devised to hasten.

Word comes that Dr. C. O. Hadley, now Capt. Hadley, enjoys excellent health and is rendering good account of himself and company. Formerly Co. G, unattached, is now Co. K, 136th U. S. Infantry.

Dr. J. N. Bryant of Tulsa, Okla., brother-in-law to Dr. G. H. Handy, brings his wife to Hubbard Hospital for treatment. Mrs. Bryant was a Miss Corinne Peterson, sister to Mrs. Randy. She is an early graduate from the Nurse Training Department of Hubbard Hospital. Friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Service Flag for Meharry.

What of a service flag for Meharry? Such a flag would float to the breeze. Seventy stars representing seventy Meharry men who have received commissions from Uncle Sam to enter the service of the United States Army. Dr. J. H. McClure has been commissioned and adds another star.

News comes that Donald of the Freshman Medical Class has been returned to pursue his studies at Alford may join us late in the month. Let us hope for the best.

NASHVILLE MEN IN FLORIDA.
Seven of Nashville's well known hotel men left the city Wednesday night for West Palm Beach, Fla. They are to spend the winter in the land of flowers. They will be engaged at the Royal Poinciana, regarded as one of the most magnificent hotels on all the Southland, where the wealth of the East is spending the winter season.
Many people look upon Florida in winter time as the playground of the rich. In the party that left Nashville were Dr. Fred D. Baves, Mr. O. D. Marchbanks, Mr. Walter G. Brown, Mr. E. P. Moore, Mr. Wm. Sutton, Jr., Mr. J. P. Pierson, Jr., and Mr. C. Shook. They were jubilant over the prospects for a delightful stay in the sunny South and request that the Nashville Globe be sent to them. The entire number, except one, was connected with the Hotel Hermitage during their stay here. It is said that they were of

Lonely—no, not lonely
While Jesus standeth by,
His presence fills my chamber,

Friendless—no not friendless
For Jesus is my friend,

Tired—no not tired
While leaning on his breast
My soul hath sweet possession
In his eternal rest.
Then let us as we go from here
Close our ranks and strive to follow
where he led, therefore be it
